Homecoming Scotland 2009

When planning your 2009 holidays, consider making a trip to Scotland to celebrate their Homecoming. If you're from Scotland, of Scottish decent, or just like Scotland, 2009 is a great time to make the trip!

There are events planned all over Scotland from Robbie Burns' 250th birthday on Jan. 25th, right through to St. Andrew's Day on Nov. 30th.

There are conventions, parades, Highland Games, festivals and much more.

One of the main attractions of the Homecoming is the Clan Gathering July 25-26th in Holyrood Park, Edinburgh.

Approximately 800 clansmen and clanswomen as well as 30,000 visitors from around the world are expected to attend. There are already confirmed visitors from over 23 different countries. There are people from 45 of the 50 US states attending and at least 6 of the 10 Canadian provinces are being represented. Prince Charles is expected to oversee the events as well.

Visitors from around the world will experience the 2009 World Highland Games Heavy Events Championship featuring events such as the Tossing the Caber, Putting the Stone, Throwing the Hammer, and more. There will, of course, also be Highland Dancing and Pipe Bands.

For more information and a list of events, go to the Homecoming Scotland Website.
