May 2011

IN THIS ISSUE:

- :: In-store for May
- :: May Facts - May Day and Mother's Day
- :: Monthly Featured Specials - Thorntons Premium Chocolate Collection and Treacle Toffee Box!

May Day, Maypoles and Mother's Day...they all signify May! To celebrate these occasions we have brought in several special items, which you can read about below.

We would also like to congratulate Karen Anthony on winning promotional tickets to see Irish Comedian Tommy Tiernan on May 12th. We hope she enjoys the show! Thanks to all who came in-store and entered.

Enjoy the changing weather as it warms up and if you happen to be walking by on Broadway, stop in and say hello. We would be glad to see you! Please read on for this months specials and interesting May facts.

In-store for May!

The store has many wonderful items now in stock.

As mentioned last month, we have now managed to get in all of our Bisto - this includes Original Favourite, Chicken, Chip Shop Curry and Parsley Sauce. Also, don't miss out on Crisps and Twiglets!

We have also received a wonderful selection of Scottish Heathergems. These unique pieces of jewellery are made with natural scottish heather that is dyed, compressed and polished to a beautiful finish. These are complemented with a setting of silver and pewter. It makes a wonderful surprise gift, especially on Mother's Day!

For those interested, the maypole picture is of my dance group back in 1995 - great fun!

May Facts

May Day

May 1st is celebrated throughout the Celtic world as a changing of the season. It is known as:

Bealtaine in Irish

Bealltainn in Scottish,

and

Calan Mai in Welsh.

To celebrate this festival, in Ireland and Scotland bonfires would be lit. These were for purification and good luck. In Wales, May Day is celebrated with dancing and singing. It is also common with all three, to decorate the house with rowan or hawthorn to celebrate new growth and fertility.

A recognizable part of May celebrations is also the Maypole, where groups would dance patterns and wind ribbons around a decorated pole .

And finally, a special thank-you to all Mothers, including mine and Philippe's for all their wonderful support.

Kathi Davis-Lepage

Mother's Day

May 8th is Mother's Day in Canada! This is a time to celebrate with your Mom and let her know how much she is appreciated.
